

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE FAQs

Q. Am I allowed to attend the Public Works Women's Leadership Conference on County Time?

A. DPW Employees are allowed to attend the conference on County time with their Supervisor's Approval (Approval may be granted provided the operational needs of the Division/Group can be met in the employee's absence.)

Employees of other L.A. County Departments must inquire with their own Department as to whether they will be allowed to attend on County time.

Q. Will my L.A. County Department pay my registration fee?

A. DPW Employees are required to pay their own registration fee.

Employees of other L.A. County Departments should inquire with their individual Department as to its policy.

Q. Will I be able to pay my registration with a credit or debit card?

A. Yes, you can purchase your ticket directly on the event website.

Q. Is the conference limited to L.A. County employees?

A. No. The conference is open to everyone – counties, cities, public/private sector agencies, and the general public. Yes, you can purchase your ticket directly on the event website.

Q. Is the conference only open to women?

A. No. The conference is open to both men and women.

Q. Can I reserve my seat at the conference and then pay at a later date?

A. No. Due to the conference being on a 'first-come, first-served' basis, you will not be placed on the registration list until your payment is received.

Q. May I attend more than one breakout session?

A. No. You may only attend one breakout session as they run concurrently.

Q. Will I receive a refund if I do not attend the conference?

A. No refunds will be provided. The committee must pay the venue for each attendee in advance and does not receive reimbursement for last-minute cancellations or no-shows.

Q. What is the dress code for the conference?

A. Business or business casual attire.
